Enclosure No. 457377 1297
To letter No. 457377 1297
From Inspector-General of Police.

The Chief Secretary to Government, Educational Department,
Fort St. George,
Madras.

Thro' The Inspector-General of Police,
Madras,

The humble petition of K. M. Seetha Chari, Inspector of Police, Kotanaram D.
Godavari District,

Most respectfully sheweth,

That the petitioner
applied for the Revenue Test, Lower grade, of the Special Test examination, in July last, while he was in the Tanjore D.

2. That he, being then the Inspr of Police of the Kumbakonam Taluk, as chose his examination center at Tanjore, the nearest

nearest center to Kumbha-Konam;

3. That he was, subsequently, in Sept. 1897, transferred to Raichurapur Taluk in the Kodavar District, and joined the District in the middle of September 1897;
4. That, immediately, he pointed out his circumstances to the Secretary to the Commissioner for P.O. Examinations, also the inconveniences, apparent in themselves, in the way of his appearing for the Examination at Tanjore (as originally applied for) and requested that officer to allow him to appear for the Examination at Rajahmundry, the nearest center to Raichurapur;
5. That the petitioner has been refused permission to appear for the test at Rajahmundry & the order is submitted in original;

Df 27.9.97

6. That from the above facts it would be evident that the necessity to request the Examination-center to be changed was not petitioner's own making but was due to events which have intervened owing to public interests;
7. That Tanjore being not less than 900 miles from Raichurapur, ^{the journey} would unquestionably occupy 15 days (6th for going and returning) & apart from its being highly expensive, and that a month of casual leave is not sanctionable at a time of dearth of government, & that the petitioner had to keep quiet without appearing for the Examination;
9. That the refusal of the permission asked for by the Secretary to the Commissioner for Govt.

Examinations, has seriously affected the future of the petitioner since he had already passed the ~~next~~ usually held examinations and was anxious,
it was quite against the policy of Government ~~enun-~~ ciated in G. O. 610, Educational, dated 17.8.94 & contained in the following lines: - " * * the refusal
"of leave to a subordinate
"who is anxious to appear
"for an examination may
"seriously affect the whole
"of his career and it should
"be understood that all
"reasonable applications
"must be complied with
"unless compliance is dis"tinctly inconsistent with
"the public interests."
10. That the petitioner
therefore requests that the fee of Rs 6/- may be ~~and~~ ordered

1. The B.A. Examⁿ in English & Telugu,
2. The Precise-writing test,
3. The translation test, Higher grade, in Telugu, with the interpretation, via voce,
4. The translation test in Tamil,
5. The Criminal Higher,
6. The Account test, Higher grade.

ordered to be refunded to him or that he may be permitted to apply for the Revenue ^{Test} Higher grade, next year by paying Rs 3 more, which sum represents the difference between the fees of the Revenue Test, Higher and Lower grades.

I beg to remain,
Most respectfully,
Your most obedient servant,
R. Venkatesh Achari

Chief office of the Inspector of Police Madras, 7 December 1894.

Forwarded through the Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations.
I do not support the petitioner. He was transferred and fined for misconduct and his statement in para 6 of his petition, which is intended apparently to make the reader think that he was not responsible himself for his transfer, is misleading. His transfer was entirely due to his own misbehaviour, a fact he well knows.

are required by G.O., No. 319, 26th February 1880, to pay the prescribed fee into the Bank of Madras, and to send the Bank receipt to the undersigned along with the filled-up form of application for admission to the examination, which should be forwarded in accordance with this notice.

6. Each application should be sent direct to the undersigned, post-paid, superscribed and addressed as follows, all the necessary enclosures being securely fastened to it:—

[Application for admission to the Special Test Examinations.]

The Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations,
Madras.

N.B.—Insufficiently-stamped covers will be rejected.

7. Candidates should write their names, their fathers' names, and their house names distinctly and in full in their applications and give their addresses in full also. Applications defective in any particular will be returned, and if they are not re-submitted with the omissions supplied so that they reach this office within a fortnight from the date of their return, they will not be accepted.

8. Except the Revenue Test, Higher Grade, and the Criminal Judicial Test, Higher and Lower Grades, the Special Tests are open to all persons who have passed the Madras Upper Secondary Examination or the Matriculation Examination of the Madras University or any other examination recognized in article 2 of the Public Service Notification as equivalent, and also to persons who have passed the Middle School Examination in the First Class or the General Test Examination and have also been holding a permanent superior appointment on Rs. 15 or upwards in the Public Service continuously from the 1st January 1897.

[Note 1.—Undergraduates applying for the Special Tests need not have passed the prescribed Test in Handwriting and Dictation.]

[Note 2.—For information regarding the conditions to be fulfilled by candidates for the Revenue Test, Higher Grade, and the Criminal Judicial Test, Higher and Lower Grades, applicants are referred to the notes under article 4 of the revised Special Test Notification published at pages 240-248 of Part I-B of the Fort St. George Gazette of the 27th April 1897.]

9. Candidates who have passed the Middle School Examination in the First Class or the General Test Examination should submit with their applications a certificate signed by the head of the office or department in which they are employed to the effect that they have held a permanent superior appointment on or above Rs. 15 per mensem in the Public Service continuously from the 1st January 1897.

10. Except in the case of the Salt and Abkari Tests, no candidate will be allowed to come up for both the Higher and Lower Grades together of the same test.

11. Every candidate is expected to sit for his examination at the place where he is employed, or where he ordinarily resides, or, if that place be not a centre, at the centre nearest to it. Candidates not conforming to this rule must, at the risk of having the results of their examination set aside, previously obtain the permission of the Commissioner for selecting other places as their centres or assign satisfactory reasons for doing so in their applications, failing which their applications may be rejected.

12. Candidates not employed in the Public Service cannot, under any circumstances, be allowed to change the place of examination named by them in their applications. Candidates so employed will be allowed to do so in special circumstances, if application is made on their behalf before the 31st August by the head of the office in which they are employed and it is certified that the change is necessary in the interests of the public service. Candidates changing their place of examination without the knowledge and consent of the Commissioner must be prepared to have their examination annulled.

13. The fee paid by a candidate who absents himself from the examination will on no account be refunded to him, whatever may have been the cause, public or private, that prevented him from attending the examination. Nor will the fee be refunded to any candidate who may be found to be ineligible to appear for the examination. Candidates are accordingly warned to satisfy themselves, before sending in their applications, that they are eligible, under the rules in force, to be admitted to the tests for which they apply.

14. Any candidate suspected of having had recourse to malpractice of any kind is liable to have his examination invalidated and also to be debarred from appearing again for any of the examinations under the control of the Commissioner for such term of years as the Commissioner may think fit; or, if the Commissioner is not satisfied as to the trustworthiness of his results, he may be required to undergo a re-examination in any one or more of the subjects of the examination for which he appeared, his success or failure being determined on the results of such re-examination.

15. Subject to any changes that may be rendered necessary, the examination will be conducted in the order of time and subjects shown in the subjoined table:—
