Letter from the Registrar of the University of Madras, No. A. 205/1722, dated 10th Dec. 1898.
Letter from the Government Solicitor, No. 30, dated 17th Jan. 1899.

ORDER—No. 381 W., dated 7th February 1899.

The correspondence read above relates to a request made by the Syndicate of the University of Madras for permission to close the roads immediately surrounding the Senate House, on the ground that the noise caused by the passing of carriages and other vehicles close to the Senate House has a disturbing effect upon the students undergoing examination in the building.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council cannot see that the public will suffer any inconvenience if deprived of the use of these roads, and accordingly directs that they be closed to public traffic by the erection of four gates at the places shown on the plan.

3. The expense of erecting the gates will be borne by the University, who will be informed that Government retains the right to re-open the roads to traffic or make any other arrangements it thinks proper. For the present the traffic may be restricted to vehicles going to or from the Senate House.
