NOTE FOR THE 4th.

Hitherto the B.L. and Pleadship classes were taken together by the same Professor in the Codes of Civil & Criminal Procedure and the Law of Limitation, but as these subjects have been omitted from the Curriculum of Studies for the B.L. classes - vide Flag B - separate arrangements have to be made for the Pleadship class being taught in them.

No. 1458

From

THE HONORABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.SC., LL.D.,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Educational DEPARTMENT,

Fort St. George.

SIR,

I have the honour to request the sanction of Government under article III (ii) of the Law College rules for the appointment of a special lecturer for the current term for the Pleadship class, his remuneration being the same as that of an assistant Professor. The Principal reports that this class will be combined as much as possible with the B.L. classes; but, in order to give the Pleadship class students instruction in such of the subjects as are not being studied by the B.L. class students, for instance, the Codes of Civil and Criminal Procedure and the Law of Limitation, which have ^{lately} ~~already~~ been removed from the B.L. curriculum, the appointment of ^a ~~a~~ special lecturer is necessary, and I beg to recommend that M.R. Ry. Tiruvenkata Rangachariar, B.A., B.L., may be appointed to the post.

2. I also solicit sanction for M.R. Ry. K. Narayana Rau, the first assistant Professor, doing, as on previous occasions, Professor's work and drawing remuneration at the rate allowed to Professors. The Principal reports that the size of the second B.L. ^{class} is too large to permit of its being accommodated in one room and that for lecture a division of the class is indispensable. The senior and junior Professors being engaged in this work and the Principal being engaged partly in the second and partly in the third B.L. classes, the employment of an additional Professor is considered absolutely necessary.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. G. H. H. H.

Director of Public Instruction.
