No. 11.

District Court, Kurnool,

7th February 1899.

From

W. M. Thorburn, Esquire,

District Judge, Kurnool.

To

The Registrar of the High Court of Judicature, Madras.

Sir,

In his letter of the 2nd ultimo, No. 1, the District Munsif of Markapur has brought to my notice that the 7th clerk's place in his Court has been vacant for months past and that no passed candidate is procurable inspite of notification in the Fort Saint George Gazette. I am to observe, that this difficulty is not peculiar to Markapur. ^{alone} In my own Court there is a clerk's place vacant for the last three months and in the Nandiyal Munsif's Court two such places are vacant. A passed candidate cannot be procured although applicants have been invited by repeated advertisements in the local and Fort Saint George Gazettes. It is often very difficult, owing to the very backward state of education and unfavourable climate of the District, to secure the services of passed candidates for clerk's places, especially so in the Judicial Department where chances of promotion are rare. I have reason to believe that even in the Revenue Department of this District many appointments on Rs. 15 are filled with unpassed men. This being so there is no ^{chance} ~~chance~~ of Markapur Munsif getting a passed candidate for the vacant post in his Court. The Munsif therefore requests that a copyist of his Court named C. Subbarayudu, who writes a neat hand in English and Telugu, who has acted as clerk on some occasions, and who has passed the Middle School Examination in the Second Class may be exempted from the Examination rules for the appointment (on Rs. 15) in question. He and his predecessor in office speak well of this copyist's qualifications and character. I therefore support his recommendation and request that the High Court will be pleased to have him exempted from the Examination rules for this appointment.

I have, etc.,

District Judge.
