Sir,

I have the honour to request you will be so good as to obtain sanction for the refund of my passage money Rs.375, a duplicate receipt for which I have already forwarded.

I beg to point out that I have been deputed to Europe under Article 103 of the Civil Service Regulations and article 99 states that an officer who draws deputation allowance is not thereby debarred from drawing travelling allowance.

If I have wrongly interpreted the article and am not entitled to any travelling allowance, I beg that special sanction may be obtained for the amount.

I have, &c.,

Through the Accountant-General.

SIR,

In returning Endorsement No. 73 dated 8th December 1898, I have the honour to state that I feel doubtful whether article 99 of the Civil Service Regulations applies to an officer deputed to Europe under article 103. That I have no objection to the grant of passage money if it is admissible under the rules. I agree with Sir George Birdwood in thinking that the allowance granted to Mr. Combes is inadequate for his expenses. The concession now sought, if granted, which I recommend it should be, would assist Mr. Combes in his special studies.

The S. of S. wishes to know the views of this Govt on an application from Mr. J. W. Coomber, who has been sent to England on deputation, for the refund of the cost of his passage from Madras. The A. G. states that there is no account objection to this application being complied with & the D. P. I. recommends the grant of the passage money. Mr. Coomber's allowance of half pay has been found insufficient & H. M. approved of the D. P. I.'s recommendation that the allowance should be raised to two-thirds of his pay.
