Sir,

It appears from a Despatch from the Secretary of State received with the letter from the Home Department, No. 424, dated the 18th September 1898, that with a view to dissociating the idea of a Reformatory from that of a prison, the Reformatory School in the Madras Presidency has been placed under the Director of Public Instruction of that Presidency and at a station where there is no prison. I am directed to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor, you will be so good as to favour this Government with copies of the correspondence relating to the arrangements so sanctioned by the Government of Madras.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,
