CURRENT No. 1834

From The Director of Public Instruction

For Orders

Under the proposals for the future working of the male branch of the Lawrence Asylum sanctioned in G.O. No 5788 of 19th September 1898, the tailoring class is to be abolished. With this apparently the need for a master tailor will cease. It is not therefore clear why this instruction under a different designation is any longer required.

Sir.

Application having been made by the Officer Commanding the Suffolk Regiment for the return of Private Dedman to regimental duty; but who, in para 2 of his letter, states that he has no objection to the soldier's transfer to the unattached List, I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to propose the following alteration in the wording of P. M. L. No 287 of 21st May 1889; viz, that the term "Junior Sergeant" be substituted for "Master Tailor", as the latter is not now required in the Asylum.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obed^t Serv^t.

Sir.

With reference to your endorsement no 13,691 dated 2-12-98, on Memorandum no 53 of 1st December 1898, Educational Department, from the Secretary to Government, I have the honor to state that, as Private Dedman, whose services have been lent to the Asylum, will have to rejoin his regiment, if he is not transferred to the Unattached List, and, as he has given thorough satisfaction as a platform, or junior Sergeant, the request was that, as there would be no need in future for a Master Tailor, the words "junior Sergeant" should be substituted for "Master Tailor" in P. M. G. no 287 of 21st May, 1889, according to which the Asylum is limited to a certain number of effective soldiers.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Yours most obedient servant
