From A. H. L. FRASER, Esq., c.s.i., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India (Home Department—Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, 17th October 1898, No. 2057.

With reference to the correspondence ending with Home Department endorsement No. 2279, dated the 23rd October 1897, regarding the question of restricting the right of appeal against departmental punishments which public servants holding subordinate appointments now enjoy, I am directed to say that it has been decided not to make any alteration in the rules regulating the submission of petitions to the Government of India. The Governor-General in Council has, however, no objection to Local Governments and Administrations making a rule, if they desire to do so, as proposed by the Government of Madras, prohibiting second appeals by Government servants on a salary not exceeding Rs. 50 a month when the appeal is to the Local Government, and Rs. 25 a month when the appeal is to any other authority. I am to ask that, if such a rule is made by the Government of Madras, the fact may be reported for the information of the Government of India.

Order—No. 199, Public, dated 17th February 1899.

His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to add the following clause to Rule V of the rules regarding petitions addressed to the Government of Fort St. George:—

(11) When a petition is an appeal against any order prejudicially affecting a Government servant who is in receipt of a salary not exceeding Rs. 50 a month, if an appeal against such order has already been decided by an officer superior to the officer passing the order.

2. The letter from the Government of India will be communicated to all departments of the Secretariat with a view to the issue of orders in each department specifying the officers, or classes of officers, in each branch of the public service, drawing a salary of not more than Rs. 25 per mensem in whose case a second appeal is to be altogether prohibited.

Amendment of petition rules

FOR ORDERS.

H. M.

Chs 298.
+ B

In its order no 199 Public d/ 17th Feb^r 1899 Govt added a clause to the C. Petition rules to the effect that a petition addressed to Govt will be liable to summary rejection when it is an appeal against any order prejudicially affecting a Govt servant who is in receipt of a salary not exceeding Rs 50 a month if an appeal against such order has already been decided by an officer superior to the officer passing the order and requested the Departments of the Secretariat to issue orders specifying the officers or classes of officers in each branch of the public service drawing a salary of just more than Rs 25 per mensem in whose case a second appeal is to be altogether prohibited.

2. The Director of Public Instruction, the Comm^r for Govt Examinations and the Superintendent Govt Museum were then directed to report the officers or classes of officers to be specified in such orders to be issued in this department.

Cuo 375.

3. In reply the Comm^r for Gov^t Examinations says that pending the re-organization of his office the Peons and the Munchi are the only officers in whose case the right of a second appeal is to be ^{altogether} prohibited.

(The file about the re-organization of the Comm^r's office is now in circulation with those about Examiners' fees).

4. The Superintendent Gov^t Museum submits the following list of subordinates in his office ~~in whose~~ in whose case a second appeal is to be altogether prohibited: -

- 1 Assistant writer
- 1 3rd Dermatist
- 13 kamals
- 6. gallery attendants
- 1 Superintendent's peon
- 1 Chickledar
- 2 Peons.
- 1 door keeper
- Comm^r's Public Library
- 1 2nd attendant
- 1 3rd attendant
- 2 Peons.

5. The Director thinks that all officers in the Educational Department drawing a salary of not more than Rs 25 per mensem should be precluded from preferring second appeals against orders prejudicially affecting them.

Cuo 413. 942

This seems the simplest & fairest Rule. There seems no reason why one class of officers on pay less than Rs 25 should have the right of 2nd appeal while another class on same pay should not. Presumably the same Rule will be adopted for all departments.
