Rev: Test Lower & Account Test Lower	Until Janmam registration work is completed.	One year from the date of sanction.	First application.	Passed candidates are not available owing to the heavy demand there has been for Revenue Inspectors on account of Janmam Registration and Land Acquisition.	Recommended that the exemption sought may be sanctioned.	The vacancies are caused in the arrangements made for filling up the posts of 9 Special Revenue Inspectors sanctioned in G.O. No. 709 Revenue, dated 24-11-98 printed in B.P. No. 439 Rev: Settlement. All except Nos. 1 and 8 will be sent for survey training as soon as practicable.

READ

application for exemption from passing certain special tests of certain individuals for employment as Revenue Inspectors in Malabar submitted by the Collector of Malabar Reference on C. No. 874/99, dated 31st May 1899.

Resolution

Submitted to Government with the request that the exemption sought may be sanctioned during the employment of the men as Revenue Inspectors in the particular arrangements under which they have been appointed.

2. It is observed that the Collector recommends the exemption of ten men although it appears from column II of the statement read above that there are only 9 vacancies to be filled up.

Presumably one of the men is required for a vacancy caused by some arrangement unconnected with janmam registration work. This should be explained.
