Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture),

Dated 27th June 1899.
No. 3145 Ins.

Read. The following letter from Herbert Bradley Esq. - I.C.S. Ag. Collector of Madras, Reference on No. 9 of 1899 dated 9th June 99:-
Confidential
One Annunagiri Nathan, Assistant - Telsi on No 15 in the stamping weights and measures Department of the Madras Deputy Collector's office, having been dismissed for accepting an illegal gratification on the 2^d instant, I have appointed in his stead - S. Eriachari, an attender of my office on No 12. He is a goldsmith by caste and profession and knows English, having read up to the Matriculation standard, although he has not passed any Examination. The duties of the appointment require much skill in the use of scales, fil the adjustment of small differences in Jewellers' and other weights calling for delicate and careful handling, so that a trained goldsmith will make a better testor than one merely qualified under the Examination rules. Errachari is reported to possess the requisite — qualifications for the work, as his family is employed in his hereditary trade at which he works during his out-of-office hours. Considering the small pay of the post, it is not possible to secure a trained goldsmith with the prescribed examination qualifications. I have, therefore, the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to obtain the orders of Government — exempting Errachari from passing the Upper Secondary Examination, so as to enable him to hold the Assistant Testor's post.
