Simla, the 27th July 1899.

Sir,

I am directed to reply to your letter No. 359, dated the 16th June last, regarding the service for pension of M. R. Ry. Pranatartihara Aiyar, Assistant Inspector of Schools.

2. It is not stated in your letter whether the officer is about to retire from the service. If he is not the question of his pensionary service need not at present be discussed.

3. If the officer is about to retire I am to request that the pension papers may be submitted to the Government of India, together with any recommendation for a special concession which the Governor in Council may wish to make on his behalf. In the event of this course being followed an explanation should also be given of the special arrangement under which the Head Mastership of the Tayler High School, Naraspur, was formerly considered a Government appointment and ceased to be so considered on the 31st March 1885.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

R. Nathan
