Sir,

I have the honore to Submit the following matter for the consideration and orders of Government.

2. One Mr. Ganapathy Medally is a Clerk in this office and has ~~been~~ as such for the past 18 years; during the first 7 years of his service his pay was Rs 14 1/2 per mensem and is at present Rs 20 per mensem. As being a passed candidate he is disqualified for promotion under A.

2

Public Service Notification while other clerks who are considerably his juniors by reason of their being passed men, are enabled to act in higher appointments and draw additional allowances when temporary vacancies occur, and are eligible for promotion in the event of permanent vacancies.

I have found Mr. Ganapathy Mudelly to be an intelligent and deserving clerk with a general knowledge of the work of the office acquired by his long experience, and I submit that for his past good service and his general merits in this office he is deserving of encouragement at the hands of Government. I trust, therefore, that as a special case the Government will be pleased to exempt Mr. Ganapathy Mudelly from the Examination Rules for only as to render him eligible for for promotion in this office when a vacancy either temporary or permanent occurs, which, I may add, is very seldom.

3. The case is one that has already been placed before Government - vide correspondence ending with G. O. Educational, No. 449 dated 23rd October 1893, but for the reason above specified and in view of the satisfactory work that the man performs I venture to resubmit the case for the favourable consideration of Government.

I have the honour,
Sir,

Your Obedient Servant,

Commander, R. S. M.,
Presidency Port Officer
