[Despatch Abstract.]

Stating that, as S. Lakshminarayana is not entitled under the C.S. R
to draw more than Rs 40 at present, he will be granted a personal allowance of Rs 10 which should be deducted to the increments fall due.

CURRENT No. 1181

The Accountant General seems to mean that the sanction of Govt is necessary to Mr. S. Lakshminarayana drawing anything more than Rs 40 - vide his endorsement below the D.P.'s letter. This however does not agree with the D.P.'s statement that this is allowed a salary of Rs 50 to be drawn - may the A.G. be asked about this?

Secy The paper may go to the A.G. u.o.

Note. strictly speaking the teacher is not entitled to more than Rs 40; but the A.G. has allowed him Rs 50 and that seems to be enough.

U. O. Memo. No. 88 dt/17-8-99.

It is true that pay at Rs 50/- has been drawn without objection being raised by this office, but objection should have been raised.

To

THE SECRETARY

TO GOVERNMENT,

Educational DEPARTMENT,

Assistant-General, Fort St. George.

(Thro' the Accountant-General)

SIR,

M.R.Ry.S.La

of the Principal High School, Cuddapah, was, in August last,

appointed as Headmaster, Government Training School, Nellore,

sub-pro-tem on Rs. 40-60.

Cuddapah High School and transferred to a local article 171 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations, to draw a salary of Rs. 52 per mensem.

exception to the procedure on the ground that his substantive appointment is not in the Government Educational Department.

and allows a salary of only Rs. 50 per mensem, the pay he was drawing in the Cuddapah school. As he is a Government servant, I have the honour to request that he may be permitted to draw a salary of Rs. 52 per mensem from the date on which he joined the Nellore Training School.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Fort St George,
Accountant General's Office,
31st July 1899.

Forwarded.

The sanction of Government is necessary to M. R. by S. Lakshminarayanaiah drawing more than the minimum pay of the appointment and such sanction should not be given unless the circumstances would justify a personal allowance to an officer whose pay is fixed under Article 167 of the Civil Service Regulations. Article 171 Civil Service Regulations applies to transfers from one Government appointment to another where as the present case is one of transfer from a Municipal to a Government appointment.

Salary of Lakshminarayanaiah
Headmaster, Training School, Mel.

FOR ORDERS.

Lakshminarayanaiah was in Civil Service and his Salary was Rs 50 before his transfer to the Fort Training School Mellore. The salary of the appointment to which he was transferred is Rs 40-14-60. The AG desires to pay him Rs 52 from the date of joining Mellore. The AG says that the sanction of Govt is necessary for this and such sanction should not be given unless the circumstances would justify a personal allowance.

If a personal allowance is given it should apparently be limited to Rs 10
the difference between his old pay and the minimum pay of his present appointment, the amount being decreased
as increments fall due.
