SUBJECT.

Temporary Provisional American License - Submitting for sanction an application for exemption of form passing the Indian Matric Examination

Under Secretary to Govt. P.W.D.
The exemption seems unnecessary - Other Dept. have to certify that no persons who have passed are available. In Madras there are no doubt plenty of passed men. In this matter there seems no reason to hint to Dept. P.W. diff. from the Dept. The man was no doubt good as a Temporary person.

Application

I have the honour to return herewith your No: 1089 M.D., dated 20th July 1899 and to submit an application for exempting Ameer Bateha from examination rules for employment as a peon in the Madurai Division.

2. This man was first entertained in the Public Works Department in 1887 as a temporary peon in the late No: II Periyar Division and has put in 12 years of uninterrupted service. He has behaved himself properly and worked Satisfactorily. He is below 20 years of age and is reported to be steady and honest by the Sub Divisional officer, Dindigal, under whom he is at present employed.

3. Under these circumstances, I beg to point out that it will be a case of disappointment if the claims of this man who has rendered good service are overlooked for the simple reason that the man has not qualified himself by the examination and I therefore request that you will be pleased to obtain the requisite sanction for confirming
