To,

His Excellency Sir Arthur Ellbank Havelock, G.C.M.G., K.G.C.I.E., Governor of Port St. George and its tributaries.

The humble memorial of K. Venkata Seshaiahgar, Head Clerk, Stationary Magistrate's office, Udamalpet, most humbly and respectfully sheweth :—

That your Excellency's poor memorialist has, on this date, put in 15 years and 4 months' service under Government.

That he has passed the Matriculation Examination of the Madras University of the year 1881, and Handwriting Test of the year 1882.

That he has also passed the undermentioned Government Examinations :—

- (1) Translation Lower, Tamil, of the year 1883.
- (2) Revenue Test Lower with Account Code of the year 1891 and
- (3) has undergone six weeks' Training in Survey to qualify for a

Revenue Inspector as originally prescribed by the Board of Revenue.

That Your Excellency's poor Memorialist could not, owing to several unforeseen misfortunes that harassed his educational prospects, avail of the concessions granted by the Government to men possessing educational qualifications like him. In consequence he could not compete with better qualified men to whom only are promotions being given by the authorities.

That Your Excellency's poor memorialist was rather too late when he wanted to avail of the concession granted by the Honorable the Judges of the High Court per Rules framed by them under the Legal Practitioner's Act, permitting, only up to the Examination of February 1894, Matriculates and Middle Schoolmen (1st class), to appear for the Pleaders Examination, 2nd Grade (which includes Criminal Judicial Test Lower Grade) as the said rules were rescinded and ceased to be in force after that Examination; nor was he able to pass the Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade, for which Matriculates are not permitted to appear, after the Examination of 1893.

In consequence his claims for promotion to posts, for which the Examination Rules qualify him are generally and for well-known reasons, overlooked and he could not therefore hope to get any promotion without the Criminal Test Lower Grade, notwithstanding his long service in the Department.

Further he humbly and respectfully submits that he cannot now appear for either of the above Examinations.

Before proceeding further, he humbly and respectfully begs leave of Your Excellency to bring to notice, that Upper Secondary candidates passing the compulsory Branch and two optional Branches in the Government Technical Examinations, and Matriculates with Handwriting Test, are treated on a par by the Government i.e. the scope of employment of such candidates under the Public Service and the Government Examinations they are eligible to appear and pass are the same, except that Upper Secondary candidates become eligible also for the Pleaders Examination 2nd Grade.

The only course open to Your Excellency's poor memorialist, in these days when educational qualifications have been raised to a very high standard, to crave your Excellency for mercy due to sad disappointment of promotion in the subordinate grades for which he is qualified under the Examination Rules, and to pray that in consideration of his long service and his present poor qualifications (poor only when compared with the modern standard of educational examinations) he may be exempted from passing the Upper Secondary Examination and thus be made eligible to appear for the Pleadership Examination 2nd Grade.

In conclusion Your Excellency's poor memorialist assures that he will never fail to take the best advantage of the concession, if granted, and begs to remain,

Your Excellency's most obedient and humble servant,

H. Venkata Sankaralingam

Head Clerk, Stationary Magistrate's office,
Udamalpet, (Coimbatore District)

Dated 2nd January, 1899.

Respectfully submitted through the ordinary official channel of superiors.
