Copy of para 6. of letter to the Government of India, Home Department No. 337, Educational, dated 12th June 1899:-

As Captain Crawford by his appointment as Surgeon of the 4th District (in charge) has lost Rs. 50/- a month, his appointment being Second Surgeon carrying Rs. 700, his case is deserving of favourable consideration. For public reasons he was ordered to continue his duties at the General Hospital as Professor of Materia Medica - duties which necessitate his driving every day a considerable distance from his district. His Excellency in Council considers, therefore, that it is just to sanction the payment to him of Rs.
200 a month, the salary attached to the minor professorship under the warrant of 1867. As Captain Gabbett will perform the duties attached to his professorship of Medical Jurisprudence without additional emoluments while holding the post of Second Surgeon in the General Hospital, the additional charge to the State will only be Rs. 100 a month. For this I am

To

to ask the sanction of the Government of India.

Sir,

Owing to dissociation of Hospital from College duties, the pay drawn by Major F.J.Crawford M.D., I.M.S. as acting Surgeon, 4th District, is not debited against the College where he continues as Professor of Materia Medica, but that only the pay drawn by his locum tenens as second Surgeon, General Hospital, who performs also the duties of Professor of Medical Jurisprudence is debited against the Professor of Materia Medica, the result being the saving to Government of the amount provided for the Professorship of Medical Jurisprudence.

The present scale of pay for the combined duties of Professor of Materia Medica and Second Surgeon, General Hospital, is Rs.700, while the former Acting Second Surgeon, General Hospital, drew Rs.625 and the present acting officer draws only Rs.500 a month (exclusive of house rent Rs.75) i.e. the full pay of the appointment has not been drawn since Major Crawford left the General Hospital last year. It therefore follows that the proposed payment of Rs.200 to Dr.Crawford for his professorial duties at College does not involve any financial effect of importance, should the present arrangements continue by which the present scale of Rs.700 is not exceeded.
