To
His Excellency
The Right Honorable
The Governor of Madras

Botanumund

The humble petitioner of Mubarak Ahmed
residing in Boody Begum street
Chungmupakam.

Most respectfully Sheweth

That Your Excellency's humble petitioner had, on the 17th July, 1899, submitted a petition to Your Excellency praying for an exemption from the Upper Secondary Examination which Your Excellency was not pleased to grant on the grounds that the reasons set forth were not sufficient.
He therefore respectfully begs to set forth the following reasons and humbly trusts that the same would meet with Your Excellency's approval, and that Your Excellency would be pleased to kindly reconsider the orders passed in L.S.O., dated 14th August 1899, No. 532, Educational and the exemption prayed for be kindly granted him.

2. That Your Excellency's humble petitioner in submitting his reasons for praying for an exemption exemption begs first to state that he is a direct descendant of the Carnatic family, being the great grand-son of Allah-unnissa Begum, the shady daughter of Nawab Allahmahad Ali Wallojoh. The exhibit marked B and a reference to the Paymaster, Carnatic Stipends, will clearly prove how closely I am connected with this once illustrious family. Secondly Your Excellency's humble petitioner respectfully begs to submit that Your petitioner as far as was possible with him educated himself up to the matriculation standard of the Madras University and in the higher branches of Hindustanee Science and Literature, and he would have endeavoured to pass the matriculation examination had his means permitted him, but as the pension granted him, after the death of his father the late Gulam Hassan Allusa Raza Sahib, Carnatic pensioner No. 204, viz. Rs. 13/8 was commuted by the Government for the small sum of about Rs. 1950, out of which he had to meet heavy expenses contingent on his father's death, viz. the performing of funeral ceremonies and the paying of debts and the maintaining of himself, wife and child, which hardly left him any margin for him to spend upon upon educating himself. Thirdly Your Excellency's humble petitioner begs respectfully to put forth that his case is similar to that of one Mr. Raza Hussain, son of the late Mr. Asad Hussain Khan Sail, who obtained an exemption some time last year. As your petitioner's case comes under the same category, he trusts that he may be similarly dealt with.

3. From the foregoing that your Excellency's petitioner's case is one of such that the Government has always evinced a deep interest in to promote their welfare and status in life and as your petitioner is fairly educated and comes under the category of the "Sons of the once ruling races of India" whom the Secretary of State in one of his Despatches stated should be encouraged he therefore trusts that the usual concession granted to such be extended to him.

In conclusion Your Excellency's humble petitioner begs respectfully to bring to your Excellency's notice that he is a poor man, descended from the great Wallajah, who was a faithful ally of the British, dependant on a Small Carnate pension of Rs. 4, out of which he has to support 3 souls and he is suffering great hardship and misery and it would be a great piece of charity if Your Excellency would be pleased to take the circumstances of his case into consideration viz of being forced to commute his pension and to be cast adrift at a young age to face the miseries of the world, and grant him the exemption prayed for to enable him to secure a livelihood for himself and save his wife and infant from the bitter sting of starvation. For which act of kindness your humble petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.

Madras, Mubarak Ahmed, 28th August 1899. Petitioner.
