MADRAS.

SIR,

I have the honour to request that Government may be moved to exempt Moplah State Prisoner Katakhal Alali from passing the Primary Examination in view to his appointment as peon in the Stationary Submagistrate's office Cuddalore. His Conduct is reported to have been uniformly good. He has been acting as peon in my office during the hot weather on a stipend of Rs 3 per mensem. His monthly allowance is Rs 6 and he represents that this alone will be sufficient for him and his family. In the event of sanction being accorded and of his being appointed ^{peon} on Rs 6 he allowance allowance might be reduced by Rs 3 as I consider Rs 9 per mensem quite sufficient for him.

I have the honour to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant
