8/11/49 note. The Director does not say whether the schools in which the two mistresses are employed has been or will be recognized under the Madras Educational rules. If they are not recognized the school mistresses will not get their Order certificates unless they get themselves transferred to recognized schools. Should the Director be asked?

The D.P. I will be informed that the Madras Educational Rules do not apply to Bangalore.

The exemption is for appearing for the madrasah examination.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,
Madras, 5 September 1897.

No. 9998

From

THE HONOURABLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.SC., LL.D.,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Educational DEPARTMENT,

Fort St. George.

SIR,

I have the honour to recommend that Miss. Plunkett, an assistant in St. John's Church Girls' School, Bangalore, and Miss. Rozario of the Convent School of the Good Shepherd, Bangalore, be exempted from the condition in article 6, Chapter VIII of the Educational Rules, requiring that candidates for the Written Examination for untrained teachers' certificates should have served as teachers in recognized schools for a period of not less than two years. This concession I recommend owing to the peculiar position of Bangalore in having just been taken over by the Department. Very few of the teachers in the Bangalore schools are professionally qualified, and it is most desirable that they should qualify as early as possible. These candidates may be admitted to the next Written Examination on the understanding that, in the event of their passing both the written and the practical tests, certificates will not be granted until they have served for two years. In anticipation of sanction, I am instructing the Secretary to the Board of Examiners for teachers' certificates to admit them to the examination.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

D. Duncan

Director of Public Instruction
