EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., LL.D., Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 30th January 1899, No. 1132.

I have the honour to submit copy of a letter from the Manager, London Mission High school, Vizagapatam, dated 23rd November 1897, and to recommend, under Chapter IX of the Grant-in-Aid Code, a half grant of Rs. 500 towards the sum of Rs. 1,000 bequeathed by the late M.R.Ry. V. N. Appa Rau Nayudu for the purpose of founding a scholarship endowment in the above school. The proceeds of the endowment will be utilized for purposes similar to those of "Ankitam Jubilee Endowment" towards which Government was pleased to sanction a grant in its order, No. 133, Educational, dated 29th February 1888.

2. I beg to suggest that the Inspector of Schools, Northern Circle, and the Principal of the London Mission High school, Vizagapatam, for the time being, and M.R.Ry. Aratla Narayanaswami Nayudu, or his heirs or executors, may be appointed trustees of the endowment. The necessary trust deed as well as a set of rules for the award of the scholarship will be drawn up and submitted to Government for approval after the appointment of trustees has been approved.

3. The grant will be met from the next year's provision for furniture and other special grants under "Grants-in-aid." The current year's provision under the head having been exhausted, payment will be authorized next year.

ENCLOSURE.

I have the honour to inform you that the late M.R.Ry. Aratla V. N. Appa Rau Nayudu, a worthy citizen of this town and a wealthy landed proprietor, has bequeathed Rs. 1,000 to this school for the purpose of founding an endowment on the same lines as the Ankitam Jubilee Scholarship, founded by the late M.R.Ry. A. V. Narasinga Rau (towards which the Government was good enough to sanction a half grant), but for poor boys who do not come under the class of Brahmans, Banians or Artizans.

I request you will be good enough to recommend to the Director of Public Instruction for a half grant towards the endowment. I have received the money and placed it at the Baugh-mall's; but when the Government is pleased to make a grant of Rs. 500, the whole be invested in Government promissory notes in the Charitable Endowment Fund in the name of three trustees. I suggest that the trustees be M.R.Ry. Aratla Narayanaswami Nayudu, or his heir, or successor, D. Lazarus, Esq., B.A., Principal, London Mission High school, Vizagapatam, or his successor in office and C. C. Flanagan, Esq., M.A., Inspector of Schools or his successor in office.
