VIZAGAPATAM COLLECTOR'S OFFICE,

Dated 15th January 1899

FROM

W. C. Horne Esquire

COLLECTOR,

Vizagapatam District,

TO

L. Davidson Esquire,

As SECRETARY TO THE COMMISSIONERS OF

LAND REVENUE,

Madras.

SIR

I have the honor to state that K. Jaggiiah, the Military Pension Clerk, at Palaconda, died in October 1897. He left his work in arrears and no passed candidate applied for the post. K. Venketanarsiah, the Head Clerk of the Pension Pay Office, Vizagapatam, was therefore appointed in place of the deceased. Venketanarsiah cleared up the arrears at Palaconda and has been working satisfactorily there. My Treasury Deputy Collector examined his accounts in January 1898, and found them in good order.

The Examiner of Military Accounts accepted the nomination of K. Venketanarsiah as pension clerk, Palaconda, but objected to pass his pay on the ground that he produced no health certificate and that he was not a passed man. The certificate was subsequently furnished and the Superintendent of Pensions, Madras was written to,

to recommend Venketanarsiah for exemption from the examination rules, as no applications were received from passed men.

That Officer now informs me that the application for the exemption of the man should be made to Government through the Board of Revenue.

Venketanarsiah was holding an appointment on Rs 15, in the Pension Pay-office, Vizagapatam, when he was made Pension Clerk, Palaconda, on Rs 20.

He held the former appointment for upwards of 3 years.

Though he was paid out of the Pension Pay-officer's allowance. He has a thorough knowledge of the Military

Pension accounts, which are intricate, and has passed the Middle School Examination. He has been doing the work satisfactorily. I therefore request that the Board will be pleased to recommend him to Government, for exemption from the examination rules for the post of Military Pension Clerk, Palaconda.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
P. Govindan

For Collector.
