The corrections pointed out will be made.

(3)

Credit has been taken and the necessary alteration made.

Para 3. (2).

The transaction is fully explained in para 5 (f) of G.O. no 652, dated 14th October 1898, on the Auditor's report.

Para 5. (2).

The Contract rates are the same now as in the previous year. The Contractors declare that the market rates have not undergone any change this year, although the famine is said to be over, and from enquiries made this appears to be the case.

(3).

Credit has now been taken for the increased receipt under Firewood. No profit is made on the charge, which is for felling only. No charge is made for splitting. More firewood is consumed than in former years.

(5).

The error has been rectified.

Para 7. (1).

The allotment is not required. No pupils will appear for the Primary Examination in December 1898.

The improvements suggested will be introduced.

Government has been informed that a Finance Sub-Committee will be appointed, which will have the power to pass unforseen expenditure and to inspect the accounts.

Para 3.

The charges were unforeseen, and being a small amount, sanction was not asked since a much larger sum had been sanctioned.

The resolution of the Committee
approving of the appointment of a sub-Committee to pass such bills not provided for in the Budget has been forwarded to Government.

The plan ^{which} obtains at the Head Office could be carried out at the Branch.

Para 4.

Arrangements are being made to give effect to the Auditor's suggestions regarding the maintenance of accounts for the stores of the Female Branch and the stationery stores of both Branches.
