MADRAS.

SIR,

District Board
Godavari

With reference to Government memorandum no 1876 dated 3rd September/98 calling upon me to report how the Taluk Board acquired the site granted for the girls' school, Palcolu, and to give the date of the Special notification required by Section 48 of the Local Boards' Act 1884 vesting the vacant site in the Taluk Board. I have the honor to report that there is no notification of Government vesting the site in the Taluk Board. There seems to be no doubt however that it belongs to the Taluk Board. It was and is used as a daily market. The Monigars of the village a man aged about 40 years, says that it came to be used as such long long ago, long before either the act or the fair was passed or established. The weekly fair used to be held in it until lately when it was transferred to a fresh site outside the village. The Taluk Board has has been collecting fees for the fair.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
