Sir,
 One Packri naik was appointed as temporary Income tax peon on the 25th October 1895 in the Trinappathan Deputy Sahibdar's office in this District. The Board having ordered that only men holding permanent appointments in the pensionable grade should be appointed in the Income tax establishment, Packri naik who had no such permanent appointment was appointed as a ab kari peon of that office and the permanent incumbent of which post was appointed as temporary Income tax peon. Packri naik was holding several acting appointments as peon since 1890 and was only 23 years old when he was was appointed as Acting Abkari peon.

The Income tax Establishments in the Presidency having been since declared permanent under Government Order Mis: no: 3025, Revenue, dated 19th July 1898 Communicated in Board's Proceedings no. 220 dated 23rd July 1898 (Separate Revenue), the Head Assistant Collector recommends that Paekri Naik may be appointed as permanent Income tax peon and that he may also be exempted from the examination rules. The peon is reported to be a man of good character. I have therefore the honor to request that under the circumstances detailed above, the Government will be pleased to sanction his exemption from the examination rules.

3. The Board of Revenue (Separate Revenue) has in its Proceedings Mis: no: 109 dated 10th January 1899 exempted this peon from the operation of the age-laws rules in view to his appointment as permanent Income tax peon of the Tirupattur Deputy Tahsildar's office.
