Tinnevely Collector's Office
Dated 28th November 1898.

From, Edwin Scott Esquire
ag Collector of Tinnevely

To, The Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue
Madras.

Sir,
In forwarding herewith an application from P. Chockalingam Pillai 5th Compositor of the District Press praying for an exemption from the Examination rules, I have the honour to state that the applicant now gets a pay of Rs 12 per mensem and seeks the exemption in view of securing an appointment on Rs 15 and upwards, applicants for which must, under rule 2 of the Public Service notification printed in Fort Saint George Gazette dated 3rd May 1898 Page 253, have passed the Matriculation and Hand writing examinations.

2. The applicant has served in the Press department for a period of 7 years partly as an apprentice and partly as a Compositor and is the only Compositor in this office who has passed a Technical examination in printing - a fact which especially entitles the applicant to consideration. He is also an active and intelligent worker.

3. A vacancy will soon occur in the Press

Government Technical Examination in printing for Compositors with elementary grades.

Branch as one of the Compositors on Rs 30 retires on the 1st April next and it will then be very difficult to secure a man who has qualified himself both educationally as well as technically.

4. In these circumstances I recommend the exemption of the applicant from passing matriculation and Hand writing examinations for purposes of his promotion in the Press Branch only?

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obed^t Serv^t ag Collector

by

30 JUN 1898

The Collector of Tinnevely.

The humble petition of P. Chockalingam
Pillai, compositor, District Press, Tinnevely.

Most Respectfully Sheweth:

That the petitioner most humbly begs to state that he has passed the Technical Examination in Printing held at Madras in the year 1895 and from the commencement of the above examination in the year 1893 till 1897 only 29 candidates have passed this Technical examination in the whole Presidency of which he belongs to the town of Madras and one to Tinnevely District that is the petitioner.

2. That in the year 1896, the Deputy Compositor's post fell vacant in the Tinnevely Press and he applied for it on the strength of the Technical qualifications. But he was given only the 5th Compositor's place on Rs. 12 on the plea that he has not passed any of the University Examinations.

3. That considering that Technically qualified men have been given appointments carrying Rs. 15 and upwards in the Collectorate Presses at Anantapur and Chingleput, it is pity that the petitioner who is the only qualified man in all the 21 Collectorate Presses in the Madras Presidency is debarred from promotion to higher appointments.

4. That on G. O. No. 534 of 14.9.97 the Government has exempted the Compositors of Government Press, Madras from the examination rules on the ground that Technical examinations are indispensable than the educational. In the spirit of this G. O. the petitioner applied in October 1897 for exemption from the examination rules in as much as he has passed the examination.

Index No. 2
To 16/12
O. No. 16/12

5. That his exemption petition with the G. O. in question was forwarded to the then Acting Collector with the office note of the Assistant Collector S. G. Waller Esquire who was then in charge of the Treasury. The Acting Collector passed the following order:-
"It seems to me that when the necessity for exemption arises in the case of all or any of these Compositors, it will be time enough to make the representations they seek."

6. That he begs to submit that the above order is general and is alike applicable to all Compositors including the petitioner who has passed the Technical examinations but no special consideration was given to the Technical qualifications. Further vacancies in the Tinnevely Collectorate occur very rarely and the petitioner fears that at so distant a time the orders of the Acting Collector may be lost sight of. For instance, when the Dy. Compositor's post fell vacant in October 1896 the petitioner might have been safely recommended for exemption at that time as he was technically qualified. But no notice was taken of the petitioner's exemption and thus he lost a chance of promotion to the higher appointments.

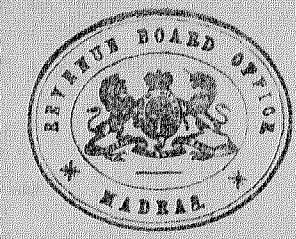

We therefore most respectfully pray that your Honor will be graciously pleased to take the above facts into benign consideration and to grant him an exemption from the examination rules so that he may not lose a chance of promotion in future vacancies.

For which act of charity and benevolence the petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray.

P. Chockalingam Pillai
5th Compositor.
