Not to be folded or roughly handled

Should Government be pleased to accede to the request contained in the accompanying letter from Mr. William Abushnot we have the honor to guarantee the repayment of £173. 4. 2 being balance at credit of the late Captain W. H.
C. Dabrymple in the General Treasury, in the event of a valid claim for the amount being hereafter preferred by any party soever.

Madras 25th February 1857.

To
The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George
Sir,

Having been informed by the Sub-Treasurer that there is a balance of Company's Rupees 173.4.2 in the General Treasury at credit of the late Captain W. F. G. Dalrymple, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council to the disbursement of the said amount to me for transmission to the widow of the deceased, and I beg to enclose a guarantee from Messrs. Ashurst & Co. to repay the amount to any party who may hereafter prefer a valid claim for the funds in question, of which contingency, I may add, there is not the slightest probability.

Should the Right Honorable the Governor in Council not be pleased to accede to my request, permit me to suggest that the money be permitted to the Bank of England or to Messrs. Gresham & Co. with instructions that the equivalent be paid to the widow, on production of the probate of the late Captain Dalrymple's Will.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Most Obedient Servant,

William Ashurst.
