No. 1. Read the following

No. 13 of 1857.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL

We desire that in all cases in which leave of absence to Europe may be granted to Uncovenanted Servants, they may be furnished with a Certificate shewing the period for which leave has been granted, the amount of their Salaries; the proportion thereof to which they are entitled under the regulations during absence, and whether it is to be drawn in India or otherwise. They are to be required to report their arrival in this country, and to transmit the prescribed Certificate for our information.
