D. F. Carmichael, Esq.

C. R. Philip, Esq.

W. C. Sin, Esq.

to the Gentlemen whose names are specified in the margin, stand debited in the Accounts of this Presidency to their personal heads, and are unadjusted in the Books of this Office. I request you will be good enough to inform me, if intimation has been received from the Honorable Court, that these sums were refunded in England on their arrival, or subsequently, or whether it is the intention of Government that the sums above mentioned, as well as similar sums, when paid at this Presidency, should be carried off as public Charges. No information from the Honorable Court, or any order of Government, on this point, has been received in this Office.

(Signed) G. L. PRENDERGAST,

Accountant General.

No. 10.

ORDER THEREON, No. 407; dated 9th July 1857.

Messrs. C. R. Philip,

R. A. Dalrymple,

D. F. Carmichael,

and

W. C. Sin.

The Accountant General states that these stands debited to the personal head of each of the four Civil Servants, marginally noted, a sum of Rupees 2000, that amount having been advanced to them at different times, on their leaving this country on Sick Certificate as per Orders of Government cited. No information having been received in his Office subsequently as to these Advances, he wishes to know whether they should be carried off as Public Charges.

Despatch of Honorable Court, F. D.,
No. 20 of 1855, and No. 1 of 1856.

2. Resolved to acquaint the Accountant General that the advance in each case has been already recovered by the Honorable Court in England.
