Fort Saint George, Financial Consultation, 28th July 1857.

No. 12. From the VENERABLE THE ARCHDEACON OF MADRAS; to E. MALTBY, Esq.,
Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated 17th July 1857, No. 414.

SIR,

Understanding that the "Civil Auditor's Manual" containing the regulations affecting the Government Ecclesiastical Establishment, is now published, I have the honor to request the favor of your soliciting the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council for this work being furnished for use in my Office, and for distribution to the Reverend Chaplains.

The general ignorance, on the part of the latter, of these Regulations, (which, until this publication appeared were not within the reach of the Clergy,) has given rise to continual difficulties and a very great and unnecessary amount of labour and correspondence to myself, and I doubt not to the Civil Auditor's Department also, a repetition of which, I trust, will now be prevented.

(Signed) VINCENT SHORTLAND,
Archdeacon.

No. 13. ORDER THEREON, No. 437; dated 27th July 1857.

The Government authorise the Venerable the Archdeacon to purchase one copy of the "Manual" for the use of his Office and to charge the price in a Contingent Bill, but they do not consider it necessary to distribute copies to the Chaplains.
