Chief Secretary will be good enough to state whether any, and what provision should be made in the General prospective estimate of Receipts and Disbursements for the current Official year 1857-58, now under preparation in this Office on account of the items of probable charges noted in the margin* and adverted to in the Official Memorandum above alluded to.

The Accountant General likewise requests that in the event of provision being necessary in the estimate for the expected increase of charge on account of the item "improvement of Tahsildars' salaries and Police reform," the Acting Chief Secretary will be good enough to state whether the proportion debitable to the Revenue and Judicial Departments, fixed in the P. S. of the Memorandum above referred to is to be adhered to.

Accountant General.

MEMORANDUM.

With reference to the memo: of the Acting Chief Secretary, the Acting Secretary to Government in the Revenue Department has the honor to state that the following provision may be made in the prospective estimate for the current Official year 1857-58 on account of the items referred to by the Accountant General in his memo: to the Chief Secretary, which appertain to the Revenue Department.

For converting Kurnool into a Zillah and Collectorate for four months at an increased charge of about 4,000 Rupees per month..... 16,000

18 Uncovenanted Assistants, establishments and Travelling allowances for six months, at Rupees 7,020 per month..... 42,120

The General Revenue survey of the Madras Presidency having been sanctioned by the Honorable Court of Directors, and the Government of India having on the application of this Government authorized the appointments of a Superintendent of settlement and a Surveyor General at a monthly cost of Rupees 4,106-10-8, a month, the Acting Secretary thinks that it will be better to insert in the estimate a sum of 60,000 on account of that item.

Acting Secretary to Government.

FORT SAINT GEORGE, {
11th July 1857. }

No. 24. Official Memorandum from the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated 7th August 1857, No 469.

The Acting Chief Secretary to Government has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Accountant General's Memorandum of the 4th Ultimo, No. 78, requesting to be informed whether any, and what provision should be made in the General Prospective Estimate of Receipts and Disbursements for the current Official year 1857-58, on account of certain items of probable expenditure embraced in the Official Memorandum from this Department, dated 13th of November last, No. 557.

In reply the Acting Chief Secretary begs to state that of the items specified in the Accountant General's Memorandum, the sanction of the Government of India has been received to the cost of the establishment of an Assistant Judge's Court at Mangalore, amounting to Rupees 1,559 per mensem; and that the following provision may be made in the Estimate on account of the other items referred to appertaining to the Revenue Department.

Fort Saint George, Financial Consultation, 11th August 1857.

For converting Kurnool into a Zillah and Collectorate for 4 months at an increased charge of about 4,000 Rupees per mensem..... Rupees 16,000
 For 18 Uncovenanted Assistants, Establishments and Travelling allowances for 6 months at Rupees 7,020 per mensem..... 42,120
 For the General Revenue survey of the Madras Presidency, including the salaries of a Superintendent of Settlement and a Surveyor General Rupees 60,000
 3. It would seem to be hardly necessary to make any provision in the Estimate for the two items noted in the margin,* as the subjects are still under the consideration of the Government of India, and it is quite uncertain when the increased outlay proposed on these accounts will receive their sanction and that of the Home Authorities; but the Accountant General may include in his Estimate an amount calculated according to the rates laid down in the Memorandum of the 4th March 1856, for about six months of the current year. In that case as regards the second of the items above referred to, the proportion debitable to the Revenue and Judicial Departments, fixed in the P. S. to the Memorandum of the 13th November 1856, No. 557, should be adhered to.
