Fort Saint George, Financial Consultation, 15th September 1857.

No. 5. To the Secretary to the Government of India, dated 9th September 1857, No. 562.

Sir,

Since writing my letter of the 7th Instant, the Telegram in the margin has been received from the Bombay Government. The "Punjaub" Steamer left before its arrival, and was so fully loaded with the Military Stores and Treasure shipped here that the "Pioneer" had been counted upon for conveying to Bombay the Treasure available at the different Outports. Now however this Government has no means of forwarding the seven Lacs of Rupees ready at Tranquebar (not Negapatam) and Tuticorin, and I therefore request that the "Zenobia" or some other Steamer proceeding to Bombay may be ordered to call for it.

With reference to my Telegram of 6th Instant, ibeg to state that the Steamer "Pioneer" will not touch at Negapatam and Tuticorin. The Treasure there might perhaps be dispatched to Bombay by Steamer "Zenobia" on her return from Calcutta. The "Pioneer" will call for Treasure at Quilon and Mangalore.

(Signed) E. MALTBY,
Acting Chief Secretary.
