Sir,

Referring to the letter from the Marine Board of the 22nd Instant, No. 3235, I have the honor by their desire to acquaint you that the Accountant General has informed them that he does not now require any remittance to be landed at Cocanada, but that half a lac is ready for transmission to Vizagapatam. This sum could be landed at Monsoorcottah, and dispatched by land, but to save the Escort which would have to proceed with it, the Board recommend that Captain Campbell be instructed to land it at Vizagapatam, on his way up the Coast.

Secretary.
