My dear Pyrope

The enclosed, with you, that you delivered to me in my carriage yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock.
I have written to my office people to make them attention and I will reply to you again from 10 to 12 or as I can.

The New Series will enable me to show something, but it seems odd, unless they don't subscribe him, being in fact at Barnaby - then questioning us just now.

Yours very truly
Ed Whittier

Dear.

The accompanying Telegraphic Message was received yesterday afternoon & I sent it off at once to Mr. Pendergast, whom now I enclose —

I suppose I had better Telegraph back at once accord-ing to his advice when I feel it.
