11 to 15. Recommend for Court's favourable consideration that Gondappah, Head Sheristadar of Tanjore, who after a service of upwards of 36 years, has been compelled to retire from an infirmity of vision, be granted a pension of Rupees 350 per mensem, and that after his death a pension of Rupees 250 per month may be continued to his children.

3. We regret that Gondappah has been obliged to resign the service, but we cannot authorise a departure in his favor from the Pension Rules for the Uncovenanted Service. But in order to distinguish his case from that of others who become entitled to similar pensions, although their services may have been less meritorious, we sanction your granting him a donation of one thousand Rupees in addition to his present pension.
