No. 32. From G. L. PRENDERGAST, Esq., Accountant General; to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 2nd March 1858, No. 364.

SIR,

With reference to Extract from Minutes of Consultation, dated the 23rd Ultimo, No. 114, I have the honor to submit, for the information of Government, a Memorandum shewing the amount value of small Silver and Copper Coins despatched to Collectors, &c., from the commencement of this year, and also of such Coins packed up and held in readiness for despatch, as well as those which will be despatched as opportunities* occur, including the supply required for issue at the General Treasury and those to form a reserve at Masulipatam, at Trichinopoly and at the Presidency. Large as is the stock of small Silver Coins at present in the General Treasury, it will be observed that it is not sufficient to meet the supplies required.

* By return Escort when remittances are brought to Madras by land, or
By Steamers along the coast when available.
Vide Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated the 6th October 1855, No. 416.
