No. 8. TO THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, dated 16th March 1858,
No. 187.

SIR,

In their letter of the 15th February 1845, No. 120, the Government of India, in sanctioning an allowance of 100 Rupees per mensem to the Master Attendant at Madras for the discharge of the additional duties of Protector of Emigrants, directed that the allowance should be debited to the Emigration Fund. The allowance ceased in 1848, when Emigration to the West Indies closed.

2. The allowance was, however, on the re-opening of Emigration to the West Indies in 1856, renewed; and the charge debited, as directed by the Government of India, to the head of "Her Majesty's Colonial Government in the West Indies,"

Extract from Proceedings, Financial Department, 19th December 1856, No. 5662.
From Government of India to Madras Government, 30th April 1845, Financial Department, No. 844.
See, also, Statement in letter to Supreme Government, dated 3rd July, 1857, No. 882.

Exception has been taken by the Emigration Commissioners in England to this charge, as will be seen from their letter of the 12th December last, which forms one of the enclosures of the Honorable Court's Despatch, dated 19th January, No. 1 of 1858. In forwarding, therefore, Copies of these papers, I am directed by the Right Honorable the Governor in Council to refer the subject for the Orders of the Government of India.
