Fort Saint George, Financial Consultation, 3rd August 1858.

No. 11. MINUTE OF CONSULTATION,—No. 513 ; dated 3rd August 1858.

In reply to an application from this Government, 22nd May last, that Mr. C. A. Roberts who had been temporarily transferred from acting as Deputy Collector of Sea Customs, to act as 1st Assistant to the Accountant General, during the employment of Mr. J. L. Lushington, might be allowed, while officiating in the latter appointment, to draw his former rate of Deputation Allowance, or Rupees 750 per mensem, the Supreme Government observed that they did not think that a compliance with the above request is possible, unless the Government of Madras could make an arrangement by which the difference would be made good by a corresponding deduction from the Acting Allowance of the Officer acting in the Sea Customs Department.

2. The appointment of Acting Deputy Collector of Sea Customs has recently been vacant for sixteen days, or from Mr. W. Hudleston's taking charge of his Office as Sub Secretary of the Board of Revenue to that of Mr. W. S. Nesbitt's joining the Sea Customs. It seems to the Government that, on the principle referred to by the Government of India, the deputation allowance for those days—Rupees 387—might fairly be made available for re-imbursing Mr. C. A. Roberts in part for the loss to which he would otherwise be subjected by his temporary transfer to the Accountant General's Office. The Civil Auditor will pass it to him accordingly.

3. This arrangement, it is remarked, will entail no loss on the State, inasmuch as the permanent incumbent of the Office of Deputy Collector (Mr. W. E. Cochrane) draws only a moiety of his Salary whilst absent on Medical Certificate.

Chief Secretary.
