With reference to the several Extract Minutes of Consultation, No. and date as per margin, I have the honor to request that you will obtain for me the instructions of Government, as to the precise dates from which the reduction of Salaries and the abolition of and creation of new Offices, as recommended by Mr. Breeks, and sanctioned by Government, are to have effect.

No. 24. ORDER THEREON, No. 101; dated 14th February 1859.

The Government observe that in their Proceedings reviewing the several reports submitted by Mr. Breeks it is distinctly declared that the abolition of the Offices recommended by that Officer and authorised by them is to be carried out as the new system of Account is brought into operation; but that the reduction of salaries shall not in any case affect existing incumbents, it can only have effect on the occurrence of vacancies. The Government cannot specify the precise dates from which the several changes sanctioned by them should be carried out. The Civil Auditor must be guided by the above general instructions, in communication with the Collectors whose Establishments are effected by them.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
