Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, from 30th April to 3rd May 1859.

No. 7. Read the following letter from Mrs. FRANCIS IGNATIO REBOLD ; to the Right Honorable the Governor, dated Rebold Garden, 27 Grace Saint Rathbone Place Oxford Street, London, 14th March 1859.

Captain John Wolfcand, a Native of Wisemburg, France, Alias Wolfcand Moss, deceased at Madras in 1790, has bequeathed an Estate of great value to his heirs, Francis Ignatio Rebold, Native of Wisemburg, Nephew of Captain John Wolfcand Moss, deceased, the 2nd October 1824 at French Vitry France. Francis Ignatio Rebold gave to his wife Mary Cecilia Martha, the enjoyment of what fell to him of the Estate of Captain John Wolfcand Moss. Mr. Binny told me in 1840 that this Estate was $ 4,400 Sterling in value which would revert to me in my capacity of Widow Francis Ignatio Rebold. As I have received nothing of this sum, I shall be extremely obliged and grateful to you if you would be pleased condescendingly to inform me where this money is placed, that I may be able to touch the income thereof.

Mr. Binny, who has given me this information, resides at 37 Bryanston Square London.

I have the honor, Honorable Sir, to solicit from your kindness a reply.]

No. 8. ORDER THEREON, 2nd May 1859, No. 253.
