Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, from 18th to 24th June 1859.

No. 6. Read the following MINUTE by the Honorable the President, 21st June 1859.

As Gold Coins which remain on hand from one year's end to another owing to their not being a legal tender or to their being obsolete and uncurrent, offer a peculiar temptation to embezzlement, I propose that the Gold Coins which I have marked in the accompanying weekly state of the Treasury should be transferred to the Mint to be sold at their market value or to be otherwise disposed of as the Master of the Mint may report to be most advantageous. There are also two small sums in Silver and Copper which should be similarly dealt with as "not current."

The Master of the Mint should attend in person at the Treasury at any time that may be agreed between him and the Sub-Treasurer, and the Coins should be transferred to the charge of the former Officer after they have been counted and weighed in presence of them both.

(Signed) C. E. TREVELYAN.

No. 7. ORDER THEREON, 22nd June 1859, No. 350.

The Honorable the Governor in Council observes from the report furnished by the Acting Sub-Treasurer of the state of the Treasury for the week ending, 18th June 1859, that there is a large amount of Gold Coins lying in the Treasury owing to their not being a legal tender, or to their being obsolete and uncurrent. As these Coins offer a peculiar temptation to embezzlement, he directs that they, as also the two small sums in Silver and Copper, specified in the annexed Memorandum, be transferred to the Mint to be sold at their market value or to be otherwise disposed of as the Mint Master may report to be most advantageous.

2. Resolved that the Mint Committee be requested to instruct the Mint Master to attend in person at the Treasury at any time that may be agreed between him and the Sub-Treasurer, and that the Coins be transferred to the charge of the former Officer after they have been counted and weighed in the presence of them both.
