Fort St. George, Judicial Consultation, 22nd March 1859.

No. 26. Extract from the Minutes of Consultation, dated 18th March 1859, No. 367.
Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, dated India Office, London, 9th February 1859.

With reference to Mr. James Ouchterlony's Memorial praying for compensation on removal from his late office of Principal Sudder Ameen at Ootacamund, remarks that the circumstances under which the Court of Directors disallowed the appointment of a Principal Sudr Ameen at Ootacamund on a salary of Rupees 800 have been fully stated in their Despatches No. 17 of 12th November 1856 and No. 14 of 6th October 1857. That as Mr. Burgass in the first instance, and after him Mr. Ouchterlony, received the appointment, subject as in other cases to the supervision and control of the Home Authorities, their having in the exercise of those powers of control disapproved of the proceedings of the local Government does not constitute any admissible ground of compensation, the claim of Mr. Ouchterlony, therefore, cannot be allowed. At the same time, concurs in the remarks of the Court in their Despatch No. 9 of the 11th August 1858, para. 4, that, under the circumstances, Mr. Ouchterlony's claims to employment should be taken into consideration on the occurrence of a vacancy in any office of suitable position and emoluments in which his services could be made available.

A copy of the foregoing Despatch will be forwarded to Mr. James Ouchterlony in reference to his Memorial of the 2nd October last.
