Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, from 30th July to 5th August 1859.

No. 21. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated 20th June 1859, No. 6088.

Extract from a Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, No. 33 of 1859, dated 21st April.

Letter, dated 20th December 1858, No. 34.
Have sanctioned the grant of a pension, equal to one-third of his average salary during the previous 5 years, to Mr. J. E. Stockenbrook, lately a clerk in the Office of the Collector of Ahmedabad. Request instructions as to the admission of Printers to the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules.

Para. 12. Mr. Stockenbrook has served the Government continuously for 31 years on salaries exceeding 10 Rupees per mensem, and for nearly 7 years of that period he was a Printer and Superintendent of the Government Lithographic Press at Surat. You observe, that the Pension Rules are silent in regard to persons employed in Printing Establishments, and that men employed in the Printing Establishments at Calcutta are excluded from the operation of those Rules; but as Printers are generally of the same class as Writers, and as, consequent on the introduction of printing into the Government Offices, many Writers are now taking service as Printers, you recommend that the Pension Rules should be applied to Printers.

Para. 13. Under the circumstances represented, I see no reason for making Printers an exception to the Rules applicable to other Government Servants, and you will accordingly admit them to the benefit of the Pension Regulations. You will adjust Mr. Stockenbrook's pension in accordance with this decision.

His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased to resolve, in accordance with the decision of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, as conveyed in the concluding portion of the 13th paragraph of the abovementioned Despatch, that the superannuation pension of $\frac{1}{3}$ rd of the average monthly salary during the last 5 years of his service of upwards of 31 years, granted to Mr. J. E. Stockenbrook, under the orders of this Department, dated the 20th December last, be increased from that date to one-half of his salary, or Rupees 35 per mensem.

Ordered, that a copy of the above be forwarded to the Government of Bombay and to the Civil Auditor at that Presidency, for information and guidance, with reference to the communications made to them, respectively, from this Department, under date the 20th December last.
