Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, from 22nd to 31st October 1859.

No. 9. Read the following letter from J. R. BOYSON Esq., Government Solicitor, Madras ; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 13th October 1859,
No. 1657.

Proceedings of Government in its Financial Department, dated 6th October 1859, No. 566.

1. I have the honor to acknowledge the proceedings of Government noted in the margin.

2. I at once applied to the Trustees of the Civil Fund for information as to the gross amount they had paid to Dr. Maclean and the items of which such gross amount was composed.

3. In reply they informed me that they had paid Dr. Maclean, on behalf of Mr. A. Robertson, Rupees 47,541-13-8 made up as follows :

Subscription paid by Mr. Robertson to the Madras Civil Service Annuity Fund	39,014- 0-1 in excess of the half value of his Annuity.....
Interest thereon at 5 per cent per annum from 1st May 1855, (the date of the commencement of his Annuity) to 14th September 1859 (the date of payment.) ...	8,527- 13-7
	47,541- 13-8

4. All that Mr. Robertson was entitled to, were the 4 sums noted in the margin.

Rupees 39,014- 0-1 for Principal.	5. Mr. Robertson was not entitled to any
" 5,055- 0-0 for Interest.	Interest subsequent to the date of the Supreme
" 4,500-10-0 for taxed costs	Courts Decree or in excess of the Rupees 5,055
of the suit	therein awarded for Interest.

under the Supreme Courts De- cree.	6. I have therefore deducted Rupees
	3,472-13-7 paid by the Trustees of the Civil Fund to Dr. Maclean for Interest in excess of what Mr. Robertson was entitled to under the Supreme Courts Decree from the Rupees
	4,500.10-0 payable under such Decree for costs

and. £ 759-2-4 for appeal costs.	and have disbursed to Messrs. Wilkins and Shaw, only Rupees 1,027-12-5 in discharge of such costs and I herewith send one part of their receipt for the same.
-------------------------------------	--

7. I have also handed Messrs. Wilkins and Shaw first and second of Exchange by the Madras Branch of the Oriental Bank Corporation on its London Branch at 1 months sight for £ 759-2-4, (which I purchased at 2s. $\frac{1}{4}$ d. per Rupee the best rate available) in discharge of the appeal costs awarded by Her Majesty's Privy Council to Mr. Robertson as against the late East India Company and I enclose a Duplicate of their receipt.

8. I have likewise paid Mr. Ritchie, Rupees 5,625-8-7. being the equivalent at 2s. $\frac{1}{4}$ d, per Rupee of the £ 571-2-10 awarded by the Privy Council to the Trustees of the Civil Fund for their appeal costs and enclose a Duplicate of his acknowledgment for the amount.

No. 10. ORDER THERON, 24th October 1859, No. 592.
