Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, for the month of December 1859.

No. 23. Read the following Extract from a Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, addressed to the Government of India in the Financial Department, No. 94 of 1859, dated the 30th September.

Letter, dated 1st June 1859, No. 87.
With reference to Financial Despatch to Madras, dated 7th April 1859, No. 8, extending to the Servants of the Supreme Court, the benefits of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules, forward a list of Servants of all grades employed in the Supreme Courts at Calcutta and Bombay, and request to be informed whether Officers of the higher grades, as Clerk of the Crown, Taxing Officer, &c., are to have the benefit of the Pension Rules.

Paragraph 14. The extension of the benefit of the Uncovenanted Service Pension Rules is to apply only to the salaried Officers and Servants of the Supreme Courts, whose time shall have been entirely devoted to the duties of their appointments, not to Advocates, Solicitors, or others, who may hold salaried offices, but a portion of whose time is occupied with other professional engagements.

No. 9901.

Copy forwarded to the Government of Fort Saint George, for information and guidance.
