Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, for the month of April 1860.

No. 21. Read the following Petition :—

To T. PYCROFT, Esq.,

Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George.

The humble Petition of P. Tholasee Ummall widow of the late P. Vurdapillay, residing in the house, No. 29, Thatha Moothy-appen street, Black Town, Madras.

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

That your Petitioner's late husband continued depositing sums of money in the Government Savings' Bank, which amounted to Rupees 553-4-10. That your Petitioner's husband having on the 5th January last departed this life, left behind him three children of minor and tender age. That your Petitioner upon his death, demanded the payment of the sum due to the deceased, but the gentleman of the Bank informed your poor Petitioner that the sum cannot be refunded to her unless she produces authority from the Supreme Court of Judicature, the process of obtaining which, your poor Petitioner is told, would cost her a large sum of money, and what she regrets more is that the very substance which she expects as a Donum to depend upon for her future support may, perhaps, be consumed in the legal proceedings before she establishes her right for the recovery of the sum.

That your Petitioner therefore most humbly feels herself justified in submitting this her appealing application to your honor's gracious consideration that your honor may be pleased to obtain her the order of Government as a special case for the refunding of the sum so deposited with the interest accrued thereon for the maintenance of your Petitioner and her helpless children for whose benefit the sum was thus saved.

That in doing this piece of charity your poor Petitioner, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
24th March 1860.

No. 22. From HUGH D. SANDEMAN, Esq., Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 17th April 1860, No. 1,137.

I have the honor to return the Petition of Tolasi Ummall referred for report and to state that Rupees 553-4-10 is at credit of the late P. Verdapillay; Act XXVI of 1855, authorises me to pay amounts under 500 Rupees.

In September 1858, Danacoty Ummall and Comala Ummall widows of C. Appasawmy Moodely, petitioned Government to allow them to withdraw their late husband's deposit Rupees 603-14-9, reference was made to the Government Solicitor, who saw no objection to their withdrawing the amount, and Government in Extract from Minutes of Consultation, dated 8th November 1858, authorized the amount to be disbursed.

Since then several parties similarly situated have been authorized by Government to withdraw their late husband's deposits exceeding 500 Rupees.
