Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, for the month of May 1860.

No. 23, Read again the following Endorsement of the Government of India, dated 28th October, 1859 No. 9034, upon an application submitted in the Public Department (separate) for the grant of gratuities to the servants thrown out of employment by the abolition of the Mint Committee Office.

The Honorable the President in Council observes that it has been resolved in other cases that gratuities shall not be granted to persons who have served less than 5 years. It has also in other cases been resolved that a gratuity of 3 months' pay is suitable for an Officer who has served more than 5 and less than 10 years; a gratuity of 4 months' pay for an Officer who has served more than 10 and less than 15 years; a gratuity of 5 months' pay for one who has served more than 15 and less than 20 years; and a gratuity of 6 months' pay for one who has served more than 20 years.

His Honor in Council would apply these rules in the present case.

Copy forwarded to the Government and the Civil Auditor.

By order of the Honorable the President in Council.

(Signed) C. HUGH LUSHINGTON,
Secretary to the Government of India.

No. 24. ORDER THEREON, 28th May 1860, No. 239.

Ordered that a copy of the Rules laid down in the foregoing Endorsement be furnished to the several Departments of the Secretariat for information and guidance.
