Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 28th June 1860.

No. 79. To the Secretary to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated Fort Saint George, 28th June 1860, No. 314.

I am directed by the Honorable the Governor in Council to inquire whether the period during which an Uncovenanted Civil Servant may be employed on an extra or temporary establishment may be reckoned as time qualifying for pension or gratuity—or whether it be necessary that the whole term of service so to be reckoned shall have been passed on a fixed establishment.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Memorandum.

Minute by the Honorable
W. A. Morehead (dated 16th June 1860.)

I circulate this
at Mr. Morehead's
request but at the same time it is proper
that I should point out that although
Mr. Peckey was employed on the Commission for ~~over~~
years and five months
or from 11th June 1857
to 31st October 1859, yet
that his appointment
was only sanctioned
by

by the Supreme Government. 6th Nov^r 1857

N^o 4762 - for one year - and that on the expiration of that period he was continued by this Government, Order 8th October 1858.
without any authority.

The rule here referred to is an old one
passed by this Govt
in 1837 - The rule
is referred to me
a week and an
a half ago -

This Govt made
it - I believe
this Govt can set
it aside & this
I suppose we now
do - Mr.

I must also request attention to Appendix No 11 Section 1
of the Civil Pension and gratuity Rules - I do not think that this could be set aside
in Mr. Packer's case
without the sanction
of the Government of India - and it would be quite useless applying to them - Not to mention that to do so might disclose
the fact that Mr.
Packer

Packer had been kept on for one year
and five months without authority as Secretary to the Commission -
JP

which is an order of more than 20 years standing

Financial Department.

Sir,

I am directed by the Honorable the Governor in Council to inquire whether the period during which an Unconvenanted civil servant may be employed on an extra or temporary establishment may be re-ckoned as time justifying for pension or gratuity or whether it be necessary that the whole term of service so to be reckoned shall have been passed
on a fixed establishment.
