I respectfully beg to inform you that with respect to the Government Promissory Note No. 1359 of 1829-30, for Sicca Rupees 2,100, which has been purchased by my late father R. Dasikacharloo Braminy on the 3rd August 1842, as the widow of the said deceased and the natural Guardian for me during my minority and also caused, as directed, an advertisement of the loss of such a Government Promissory Note above alluded to, to be published thrice in the Fort Saint George Gazette on the 26th and 29th June and on 3rd July 1855, pages 764, 776 and 791, requiring to produce the said Bond to the Accountant General within 2 years from the date of the last advertisement if any in possession of the same under any claim whatever. And in the mean time, my mother, the said Aundala Ummall has departed this life on 17th October 1855, leaving me as sole heir.

In the end of the year 1857, I have addressed to the Accountant General to grant me, as sole heir of my late father, a Duplicate Promissory Note for the abovementioned Bond No. 1359, for Sicca Rupees 2,100, who has suggested to me to obtain Letters of Administration in my name for the Estate of my late father R. The time of 2 years from the date of the last advertisement has expired in July 1857, and that a good deal of expenses has incurred to me as well as to my late mother Aundala Ummall for obtaining Letters of Administration in the name of my mother at first and secondly in my name.

Therefore I now respectfully beg to enclose copy of Letters of Administration, No. 4040 of 1859, dated 6th September 1859, granted to me from the Supreme Court, and humbly request you will be pleased to cause the Financial Secretary to the Government of India to grant me a Duplicate for the Bond No. 1359 for Sicca Rupees 2,100 above alluded to.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
3rd July 1860.

No. 38. From F. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Acting Accountant General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 12th July 1860, No. 110.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Order of Government of the 3rd instant, referring to me for report an application from R. Vencata Vurdacharloo to be furnished with a duplicate of a Promissory Note* which is stated by him to have been lost by his late father.

2. The proprietor of a lost Government Security is required to advertize such loss in the Official Gazette in three successive issues, and then to apply to the Supreme Government, through the Chief Secretary to Government at this Presidency, for a duplicate of the lost Promissory Note, which is usually granted after the expiration of two years from the date of the last advertisement, under a Bond of Indemnity from the claimant, (prepared by the Government Solicitor) holding the Government harmless against loss in the event of the future production of the original Promissory Note.

3. R. Vencata Vurdacharloo does not state when and how the Note was lost by his late father; but as the loss has been duly advertized and for the third time on the 3rd July 1855, by his late mother Aundala Ummal, I would suggest, that his application be submitted for the consideration of the Supreme Government, accompanied by a Bond of Indemnity which the Government Solicitor should be called upon to prepare for execution by the applicant as the son and Administrator to the estate of the late R. Dasika Charloo Braminy, the usual time allowed for the issue of a duplicate Note having expired in July 1857.

4. The last interest paid at this Presidency on the said Note was for the 44th quarters, or up to 17th August 1841. The Promissory Note in question, which was notified for discharge by an advertisement of the Government of India dated 6th June 1853, appears by the General Registers of this office, to be still outstanding.
