Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 16th August 1860.

No. 42. To the Under Secretary of State for India, dated Fort Saint George, 16th August 1860, No. 404.

I am directed by the Honorable the Governor in Council to transmit to you, to be laid before the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, the accompanying Mint Master's Certificate called for in paragraph 2 of the Despatch dated 14th April, No. 23 of 1860, for the Coke which had been shipped per "Lucknow."

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Exd. F. Cartledge.

Not to be printed.

This is to certify that ^{Tons Cwt's lbs} 411- 6- 6- of Coke brought out by the ship "Lacknow" have been received into the Mint, being ^{Tons Cwt's lbs} 4- 6- 6- in excess of that stated in the Bill of Lading to have been shipped, the cause of the difference being in all probability the absorption of moisture by the Coke in the Boats or while lying in the Reach before weighing. No deduction is to be made for deficiency from the balance of Freight due.
