for the month of February 1860.*

No. 1. Read the following letter from C. H. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department; to E. F. HARRISON, Esq., Civil Service, dated Fort William, Council Chamber, the 9th January 1860, No. 137.

Financial Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated the 16th ultimo, requesting to be informed how far the position of an officer of the Department of Account will be affected by taking furlough to England, and in reply to inform you that it is understood from paragraph 16* of the Resolution of this Government, No. 5126, dated the 4th December 1857, on the subject of the formation of a General Department of Account and Finance in India, that officers going on furlough were intended to retain a lien on the appointments they might be holding at the time of taking furlough, and that they would be entitled to return to such appointments on coming back to India; and this the Honorable the President in Council is pleased now to allow on the understanding that the officer taking furlough will, during his furlough, be entitled only to the usual furlough allowance, leaving the whole salary of his appointment available for his locum tenens.

* As difficulty may arise in connection with the provision of furloughs and absence on Medical Certificate, His Lordship in Council thinks the difficulty can best be met by temporary promotions and the admission of young men on probation to succeed to permanent appointments on the occasion of regular vacancies.

No. 140.

Ordered that a copy of the foregoing letter be forwarded to the Governments noted in the margin, and to the Civil Auditors of those Governments, respectively.

(Signed) C. HUGH LUSHINGTON,
Secretary to the Government of India.
